Notes

Please note that the eligibility status granted, herein, is applicable solely for organisations' involvement in EMA related activities.

Eligible organisations are included in the EMA stakeholder database and listed on the Agency's website. The organisation's eligibility status should be renewed one year after the date of this confirmation.

It remains the responsibility of each organisation to ensure that the information declared in relation to its eligibility status is accurate and to advise EMA immediately of any change.

The Agency will perform random checks to confirm the eligibility compliance of the organisations. Non-compliance will result in the removal from the list of eligible organisations published on the EMA website.

If you require any clarification on the above do not hesitate to contact us at StakeholdersDB@ema.europa.eu.
